private equity professional to its Advisory Board*

LOS ANGELES, October 2011 — Breakwater Investment Management, LLC ("Breakwater") is pleased to announce that Alexander Adamovich, former Managing Director and Head of Peregrine Direct Investments Limited of Hong Kong, has joined its Advisory Board. Breakwater, a private investment firm, is the General Partner of Breakwater Structured Growth Opportunities Fund (the "Fund"), a private investment partnership that provides growth capital to highly promising smaller businesses.

Mr. Adamovich served as Managing Director and Head of Peregrine Direct Investments Limited, the direct investment arm of the Peregrine Group, Asia's largest independent investment bank with 28 offices in 15 countries. In 1998, Mr. Adamovich bought control of the Investment Company of China, becoming the largest shareholder in 1999. He has served on the board and investment committees of several major investment funds, including the US$850 million Asian Infrastructure Fund.

Mr. Adamovich co-invests with some of the world's most prominent and well-known investors. He is a former lecturer at the Universities of New South Wales, Australia and Hong Kong, and has presented lead papers on Asian venture capital at international conferences, including at the Aspen Institute and the Australian National University.

"It gives me great pleasure to become an adviser to Breakwater," said Alexander Adamovich. "Breakwater has been targeting highly promising growth-oriented businesses, especially US-based companies doing business in international markets such as China, continental Europe, and Australia. As a member of Breakwater's Advisory Board, I look forward to helping Breakwater continue to expand its operations and global reach."

"I am delighted Mr. Adamovich has agreed to join our Advisory Board," said Saif Mansour, Managing Partner of Breakwater. "Mr. Adamovich has been involved in direct investments in countries around the globe and across a wide range of sectors. His strategic insight and investment experience will serve as an invaluable asset to Breakwater."
